Pastoral Reflection:

The ascension marks the end of Christ’s earthly mission and His glorious return to the Father. He had achieved the work He was sent to do. His final words to His disciples, “I am with you always. Go and make disciples of all nations”, while full of comfort were urgent in meaning. Not only was Jesus not abandoning them nor depriving them of His presence but He was entrusting them with the mission of making the love of God the Father known, through joyful and selfless lives in the service of others. In Jesus’ absence the disciples are not to remain inactive but to move into the future with courage. They have a vital and essential role to play announcing the salvation Christ has won on Calvary, by transforming death into the dawn of a new life. Jesus will no longer be present in a human body but His place will be taken by the Holy Spirit who will be their guide and strength as they journey through life.

For Mother’s Day: We ask your blessing on all those to whom You have entrusted motherhood. May Your Holy Spirit constantly inspire and strengthen them. May they ever follow the example of Mary, mother of Our Lord, and imitate her fidelity, her humility, and her self-giving love. May all mothers receive Your Grace abundantly in this earthly life, and may they look forward to eternal joy in Your presence in the life to come. Amen. -Fr. Dennis

PASTORAL COORDINATOR’S CORNER

We take time today to honor those who have given us life and nurtured that life throughout the years.

Mothers present for us an image of what God’s love is like. This love is gift to us – we did nothing to earn it. It is a love that is totally disinterested in its own needs. It is a love that is directed by the lover to the beloved.

When we think of the many times that our mothers have sacrificed their own interests for our good, we can only stand in awe at such a love. We have all been recipients of that love and today is our chance to return, in some small way, a portion of that self-giving love.

Whether our mothers are still physically with us or with us in the Communion of Saints, maybe the best way to return that love is to love others in the same way that we have been loved. That is what Jesus taught us in the Good News of the gospel. Mothers in a concrete way have shown us the love of God in action. It is a love that is beyond the words used to describe it. It is a love to which we take this day to offer our simple response - “Happy Mothers’ Day”.

ADULT FAITH SEMINAR S
“CATHOLOGY on TAP” is coming!

“Cathology” is a made up word that symbolizes that the seminar series will cover topics that relate to Theology, Ecclesiology, Christology, Morality, Social Justice, etc. The “Cathology” word is meant to show that it will deal with all things Catholic.

We will try it out to gauge the level of interest on the part of adult Parishioners. The “Cathology on Tap” seminars will be on Wednesday evenings in May from 7 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. at the latest.

Please bring your questions. Also, if you have a friend who is not Catholic but always has questions about the faith, this is the place for them to come.

THANK YOU

I want to thank everyone in the parish who was involved with the Strategic Planning sessions that took place on the two Saturdays of April 23rd and 30th.

Well over 240 person hours were spent in developing specific goals for the parish and implementation plans.

The first effort was for the Pastoral Board to re-craft the Vision Statement of Holy Family and this is now on the front of our bulletin.

Some of the topics addressed were better communication of Holy Family information, facilities utilization, development of leaders in the community, catechesis, outreach and stewardship.

As you can see, there were a wide range of issues considered. The results of efforts in these areas will be the subject of the "Town Hall" meetings that will be conducted and called "DIALOGUE DAYS". These will be sessions to listen to and inform those in attendance.

All of this is possible by the stewardship of the parishioners who gave of their time and talents to envision a future that is full of Faith, Hope, and Love. Thank you.

Reflexión Pastoral.....

La Asunción marca el fin de la misión terrenal de Cristo y el glorioso regreso al Padre. Sus últimas palabras a sus discípulos, “Yo estoy con ustedes siempre. Vayan y hagan discípulos a todas las naciones,” y al mismo tiempo lleno de consuelo con un sentido de urgencia. Jesús no estaba tratando de abandonarlos o depravarlos de su presencia si no que él los estaba encomendando con la misión de hacer el amor de Dios Padre reconocido, por medio de la alegría y una vida de servicio para los demás. Durante la ausencia de Jesús, los discípulos no deberían permanecer inactivos sino seguir en el camino al futuro con valentía. Ellos tienen un papel clave y esencial que desempeñar en anunciar la salvación que Cristo ha ganado en el Calvario por la transformación de la muerte en el amanecer de una nueva vida. Jesús no estará presente en una forma humana pero su presencia será reemplazada por el Espíritu Santo, quien será su guía y los fortalecerá durante su caminata en la vida.

Para el Día de las Madres: Les pedimos su bendición a todas las que has encomendado a la maternidad. Que tu Santo Espíritu las inspire y las fortalezca constantemente. Que continúen siguiendo el ejemplo de María, madre de nuestro Señor, y que imiten su fidelidad, su humildad, y su entrega total de amor. Que todas las madres reciban abundantemente su gracia eterna en esta vida, y que ellas sigan en la esperanza a la alegría eterna en tu presencia en la vida que viene.

- Padre Dennis

Del Coordinador Pastoral.....

Tomemos tiempo hoy para honrar aquellas que nos han dado y nutrido la vida durante los años. Las madres presentan para nosotros una imagen de como es el amor de Dios. Éste amor es un regalo para nosotros-no hicimos nada para merecerlo. Es un amor completamente desinteresado en sus necesidades. Es un amor que dirigido por el amante al amado. Cuando pensamos de los varios momentos que nuestras madres han sacrificado sus intereses personales para nuestros bienes, solo podemos estar en admiración por tan gran amor. Hemos tenido la oportunidad de ser recipientes de ese amor y hoy es nuestra oportunidad de regresar, en una manera chica, una parte del amor desinteresado. Si nuestras madres están físicamente con nosotros o en la Comunión de los Santos, quizás la mejor forma de devolver ese amor es amar a otros en la misma manera que hemos sido amados. Eso es lo que Jesús nos enseñó con la Buena Nueva del evangelio. Las madres en una manera concreta nos han enseñado el amor de Dios en acción. Es un amor que trasciende las palabras que lo describe. Es un amor al cual tomamos este día para ofrecer una simple respuesta-“Feliz Día de las Madres”.

Quiero agradecer a todos los de la parroquia involucrados en las sesiones de Planificación Estratégica que se llevaron a cabo los Sábados 23 y 30 de abril. Más de 240 horas por personas fueron utilizadas en desarrollar metas específicas para la parroquia y planes para implementar. El primer esfuerzo fue para el Comité Pastoral de mejorar la Declaración Visual de Holy Family y ahora ésta declaración está en frente del boletín. Alguno de los temas dirigidos fue la comunicación de información de Holy Family, uso de facilidades, desarrollo de líderes en la comunidad, catequistas, ayuda comunitario y administradores. Como pueden ver, hay varios asuntos que considerar. Los resultados de estos esfuerzos en estos asuntos serán los temas de una junta parroquial que será conducida y llamado “Días de Diálogo”. Estas sesiones serán para escuchar e informar aquellos que asistan. Todo esto es posible por la administración de los parroquianos que dieron su tiempo y talentos para ver un futuro que esta lleno de fe, esperanza, y de amor.

Artículos para el boletín deben ser entregados los lunes antes de las 10 a.m.
