BLESSED

When we think of the word “Beatitude” we think of today’s discourse from Luke’s Gospel, or the more familiar one from Matthew (which begins “Blessed are the poor in spirit . . .”). Actually, beatitudes occur throughout the prophets and Gospels. Today in Jeremiah (with an echo in the psalm) we hear, “Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord” (Jeremiah 17:7). Following His resurrection in John’s Gospel, Christ proclaims, “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29). The evangelists placed these sayings throughout the Gospels as short reminders about the characteristics that one will find in a follower of Christ, characteristics that will help spread the Good News in this life and lead to eternal blessings in the next. In Latin, the saints are called the Beati, the “Blessed,” for they are the ones who lived the “blessed” life as described by Jesus throughout the Gospels. How blest are we, when we also strive to make our own days a living beatitude! © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Cross International Catholic Outreach

This weekend, Fr. Jack O’Malley, O.P. is visiting us and representing Cross International Catholic Outreach which is a Christ-centered ministry founded to help the poor throughout the world. We assist these desperate families through a network of church-based ministries: feeding centers, orphanages, schools, clinics, job-training centers and home-building programs. We also serve as a disaster relief organization when the need arises.

Utilizing churches to distribute this aid has an important spiritual impact. It empowers local religious leaders, strengthening the Christian community’s ability to share the Gospel with those who need it most.

By meeting the urgent needs of the poor with a cost-effective approach to purchasing and distribution, Cross International ensures that more of your contribution reaches the poor.

Our next Parish Blood Drive will be held this Sunday, February 11th, after all the masses. The event is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and will include a presentation on Blood Marrow donation. Something new this year is that anyone 16 or 17 years of age can now donate as long as they have parental consent. If you would like to sign up and reserve a donation time, which will aid you in getting through the process, you can call David Rangel at 247-6163 or 985-5374 to reserve a time. Thank you. ₃

BIENAVENTURADOS O DICHOSOS

Cuando pensamos en la palabra “bienaventuranza” pensamos en el discurso de hoy del Evangelio según Lucas, o en el más familiar según Mateo (que comienza “Dichosos lo que tienen espíritu de pobre . . .”). En realidad, las bienaventuranzas ocurren en los profetas y evangelios. Hoy, en Jeremías (con un eco en el salmo) oímos: “Bendito el hombre que confía en el Señor” (Jeremías 17:7). Luego de su resurrección en el Evangelio de San Juan, Cristo proclama: “¡Dichosos los que creen sin haber visto!” (Juan 20:29). Los evangelistas colocaron estos dichos por todos los Evangelios como cortos recordatorios sobre las características de quien sigue a Cristo, características que ayudarán a diseminar la Buena Noticia en esta vida y llevarnos a la dicha eterna en la próxima. En latín, los santos son llamados Beati o “Beatos” porque son aquellos que viven la vida “feliz” descrita por Jesús en los Evangelios. ¡Qué dichosos somos cuando nos esforzamos por hacer de nuestros días bienaventuranzas vivas!
