PASSION - The word "passion" connotes deep, focused engagement. It also relates to passivity, interestingly. The deeply passionate person in the Gospel narrative from Luke is Jesus. He appears passive, but he is not. He is wholly self-possessed and wholly present for the one day that begins on Thursday evening at his last meal with his apostles and ends with his burial before sunset the next day. Then follows the long Sabbath silence.

The narrative of the Passion is read whole and without pause on the Palm Sunday of the Passion. This story, found at each of the Gospels, is unchanging. We are the ones who change. Each year, we bring ourselves with another year's history to hear and heed the story we so badly need. Life has its way with us, and we look again to the Passion narratives to learn to follow. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Vocation Views:

Please continue to keep vocations in your daily prayers.

O God, you chose the apostles to make disciples of all nations and by baptism and confirmation have called all of us to build up your Church. We implore you to choose from among us, your children, many priests, deacons, brothers, and sisters, who will love you with their whole heart and gladly spend their entire lives making you known and loved by all.
Amen.

Divine Mercy - Jesus said to Sister St. Faustina, "I desire on that feast of Divine Mercy, to be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners." On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. "Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet." In other words, this grace is equal to the one we receive in the Sacraments of Holy Baptism. In order for people to benefit from these great gifts which the Lord wishes to give to every person and all humanity, they should be in the state of grace (ie, having went to Confession), fulfill the conditions of Divine Mercy devotion (trust and active love of neighbor), and on that day approach the Source of Life; in other words, receive Holy Communion.

Divine Mercy is April 15, 2007. Do not wait until the last minute to go to Confession - you may go on Monday, March 26th at 7:00 p.m. For more info, call Lucy at 949-3516.

PASIÓN

La palabra “pasión” conlleva un profundo y determinado compromiso. Pero es interesante que también tiene relación a la pasividad. La persona profundamente apasionada del relato evangélico de Lucas es Jesús. Parece pasivo pero no lo es. Está totalmente consciente de sí mismo y totalmente presente al día que comienza el jueves por la noche en su última cena con los apóstoles y termina con su entierro antes de la puesta del sol el día siguiente. Entonces le sigue el largo silencio del sábado.

El relato de la pasión se lee entero y sin pausa el Domingo de Ramos en la Pasión. Esta historia, que se encuentra en cada uno de los Evangelios, no cambia. Somos nosotros los que cambiamos. Cada año, nos presentamos con otro año de historia para escuchar y hacerle caso a esta historia que tanta falta nos hace. La vida nos traquetea, y de nuevo volvemos a los relatos de la Pasión para aprender a seguirle.

Tenemos toda nuestra Fe puesta en Dios en que Él nos va a curar a nuestra hija Emily, y vamos a salir adelante, porque Él es quien tiene la última palabra.

La oración ha sido nuestro alimento espiritual. Hemos hablando con Dios como nunca lo habíamos hecho. Los doctores nos han dicho que el tumor resultado no ser canceroso. Gracias por unirse a nosotros con sus oraciones.

Que Dios los bendiga.
